

Cricket Hall of Fame to hold reception in Jamaica

A team from Hartford's Cricket Hall of Fame, headed by director Michael Chambers, will be traveling to Jamaica for the opening ceremony of the Cricket World Cup, which will be staged in the West Indies for the first time ever. The group which plans to spend 10 days on the island will host a cocktail reception designed to introduce the organization to as much new people as possible.

The anticipated, exciting event is set for Wednesday, March 14, at the Knutsford Court Hotel in New Kingston. All former inductees and friends of the organization, who may be in the island at the time, are invited to attend.

The event will be highlighted with the auctioning of a Sir Vivian Richards' souvenir clock and live entertainment. Finger food and a selection of wines will be served.

In the meantime, the Cricket Hall of Fame is inviting all interested individuals to visit Chambers Cricket.com and join in the discussion on the World Cup. The CWC organizers are promising to put on a show that will be hard to surpass so send us your pictures and let us hear of your experiences during your visits to the various islands for the historical event.

Cricket lovely cricket!
