

By Stan Walker

Former West Indies cricket captain and batting star, Dr. Sir Vivian Richards, “The Master Blaster”, will be inducted into Hartford’s Cricket Hall of Fame at a gala ceremony to be held at the Radisson Hotel and Conference Center, Cromwell, Connecticut, Saturday, September 29, 2001. Keynote speaker for the evening will be Antiguan cricket commentator and historian, Tim Hector.

More than 400 are expected to be in attendance at the event in which at least two local cricket personalities will be honored for their contributions to the sport in the region. Representatives from most of the cricketing countries as well as a contingent of ambassadors are expected to be in attendance. It is anticipated that Ian Botham and pop singer Eric Clapton, close friends of Sir Vivian, will be among the attendees.

The year promises to be a very busy one for the Hall of Fame with the inductio